ESSENTIAL DUTIES:

Clergy & Diocesan Administration (Vicar General Office)

- Prepare appointment letters for priests/deacons and for members of diocesan councils/boards; obtain signatures, distribute, scan, and log in confidential files.
- Maintain active and archived clergy files; assemble new priest files and ensure proper filing and documentation.
- Draft correspondence, emails, and miscellaneous letters at the request of the Vicar General and/or Bishop.
- Prepare clergy identification and celebret cards.
- Administer updates to the Official Catholic Directory (OCD), ORDO, and Necrology list.
- Track priest appointments and council/board memberships in collaboration with the Project Coordinator for the Vicar for Clergy.
- Assist with scheduling and preparations for Presbyteral Council and College of Consultors meetings, including agendas, meals, and elections.
- Assist with funeral arrangements for clergy by retrieving the will and testament from file, serving as the primary point of communication with the family, coordinating service details with the Bishop's Office, and liaising with the mortuary regarding headstones, caskets, or urns.

- Administer the Mission Cooperative Program by reviewing requests from charitable organizations, selecting annual participants, notifying applicants of approval or denial, scheduling parish visits, arranging travel, and coordinating with the diocesan finance office to ensure proper collection and disbursement of funds.

Liturgical Support & Communications (Worship Office)

- Prepare and distribute communications for diocesan liturgical events (Chrism Day/Mass, EMOHC Commissioning, Rite of Election, Fiesta Day Mass, Corpus Christi Procession) and respond to parish and public inquiries.
- Coordinate logistics for annual celebration of the Sacrament of Confirmation in the parishes, including managing the annual parish questionnaire, planning the Bishop's visit (altar servers, music, pre-Mass meetings), arranging hotel accommodations and travel for the Bishop and team, selecting the host parish, notifying surrounding parishes, and ensuring the Confirmation schedule is added to the diocesan calendar.
- Prepare and manage worship aids and liturgical scripts, including licensing music through OneLicense, assembling and printing materials, and ensuring scripts are ready for the Bishop.
- Submit quarterly copyright reports to OneLicense and maintain accurate licensing records.
- Plan and coordinate diocesan liturgical events (Chrism Mass, ordinations, Rite of Election) at the Cathedral, including coordinating with Cathedral staff for setup and takedown, arranging use of halls for receptions, and identifying sponsoring organizations for post-event receptions (e.g., Serra Club, DCCW, Catholic Daughters of America, Knights of Columbus).
- Coordinate funerals of deacons and priests, including preparing liturgical scripts, managing invitations and RSVPs, arranging receptions, coordinating music, printing materials, and working closely with Cathedral staff & Office of the Bishop.
- Prepare and send emails to clergy and parishes at the request of the Director of Worship.
- Collaborate with the Diocesan Office of Communication to share liturgical updates.

General Office Administration

- Answer and direct incoming calls from clergy, parishioners, and the public; provide accurate information or referrals.
- Process and prepare invoices for payment.
- Maintain filing systems and records for both offices.
- Perform miscellaneous administrative tasks as requested by the Vicar General or Director of Worship.
