Medical Illustrator Full-time Employee Position Available

Medical Legal Art is seeking a Medical Illustrator to join our team as a full-time employee in the Atlanta area serving the legal market beginning immediately.

Duties and Responsibilities
Included, but are not limited to, the following:
- Creating digital color illustrations to be used in settlement and litigation.
- Working directly with attorneys and their medical experts.
- Printing, assembling, and packaging medical-legal exhibits

Qualifications
- Degree in Medical Illustration, Master's degree preferred
- Ability to problem solve and devise creative solutions
- Excellent illustration skills as demonstrated by portfolio
- Excellent oral and written communication skills
- Proficiency with Adobe Photoshop and InDesign
- Ability to meet tight deadlines
- Ability to work independently

Salary
Commensurate with experience and portfolio

Benefits
- Retirement plan (Company provides 3% matching of total compensation)
- 2 weeks vacation + 1 week personal time per year
- Company subsidized group health insurance, vision and dental
- Life Insurance
- Cafeteria plan for healthcare expenses
- Overtime pay during peak business activity
- On-site gym

Location
Kennesaw, Georgia
Relocation to the Metro Atlanta Area required

Send portfolio and resume (web-based or digital version preferred) to:
Michael Collins
Director of Production
mcollins@medicallegalart.com

Since 1997, Medical Legal Art has been a creator of medical illustrations for the legal profession. The majority of our work focuses on personal injury, along with some criminal and medical malpractice work. We currently have a staff of four illustrators who have been with the company for 10 to 30 years.