About G50 School Psychologists

School psychologists have no more than 1-2 school assignments, which allows for both traditional assessment duties as well as alternative roles in counseling, school leadership, etc.

School psychologists are school-based, with the opportunity to work at our Special Services building when needed.

205 day contract, daily one hour off-campus lunch break, and a competitive salary with an annual stipend!

For more information, contact Ginny Gast at gastg@gwd50.org

About G50 Department of Special Services

The Department of Special Services is housed within the Genesis Education Center, conveniently located across from the local dog park and walking trail.

School psychologists have access to office/working space, a physical test kit library, and meeting spaces.

Preparing tomorrow's leaders together.

Balanced School Year Calendar

Greenwood 50 transitioned to a balanced school year calendar, which provides students with two-week intercessions in the fall and spring, a three-week winter break, and a shortened summer...which means more dispersed time off for you!
