Position:	Teacher - Library
Reports to:	Director of MLC Libraries
Date:	September 2025

Overview of MLC

Methodist Ladies' College has long been recognised as one of Melbourne's leading independent, Prep to Year 12 day and boarding schools for girls, and a pioneer in co-ed Early Learning MLC stands out for our comprehensive curriculum, diverse co-curricular opportunities, and innovative approach to education and wellbeing. Our inspiring learning environments and exceptional academic results are a testament to our commitment to fostering the full potential of every student.

Joining MLC means becoming part of a dynamic, motivated, and well-resourced team dedicated to achieving the best outcomes for our students. Our staff, teachers and educational support professionals; are passionate, enthusiastic individuals who contribute to an enriching culture of learning, wellbeing and teaching excellence. At MLC, you will find a community where your skills and dedication are valued and where you can truly make a difference in the lives of our students.

Teaching at MLC

MLC is committed to offering students inspiring teachers, evidence-based teaching practices, and effective progress monitoring and support. MLC teachers take a proactive approach to student learning that is dynamic and adaptive, and the classroom is regularly revitalised by new teaching practices and methodologies that keep our students engaged.

Through Teacher Learning Communities (TLCs) and Collaborative Practice Groups (CPGs), our teachers frequently meet to learn from one another and plan how to implement new teaching techniques. Just as we encourage our students to be critical thinkers, we also encourage our teachers to be reflective and ever adaptable.

MLC's Curriculum for Learning and Wellbeing integrates learning and wellbeing into every student's day and all teachers are responsible for supporting the learning and wellbeing of students, in all aspects of College life.

Libraries at MLC

MLC Libraries foster thinking, creativity, collaboration, and entrepreneurial approaches to learning and teaching. They engender the development of innovative pedagogical practices in flexible, user-focused physical and digital environments and are staffed by expert, instructional teams focused on supporting students in developing deep understandings.

MLC Libraries comprise two main libraries, the secondary school's Walton Library and the Junior School Library. MLC Libraries' staff are arranged into three teams: Educational Services, Technical Services and Audio-Visual Services. The department comprises Teacher Librarians, a variety of library Educational Support Staff and an Audio-Visual team. The role of the Teacher Librarian is that of both educator and information leader, with an active role in curriculum design, support and implementation, collection development and the promotion of literature to facilitate learning and teaching.
